

Mark Hayes

Mark Hayes is currently the Deputy Assistant Inspector General for Audit, U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General. During the past nineteen years, Mark has served in a variety of positions within the Audit Division and was appointed to his current position in August 2015.

Mark served 22 years in the United States Marine Corps where he held numerous management and leadership positions. After retiring from his distinguished military career, Mark joined KPMG LLP in 1998. Then, in 2001 Mark was hired as an Auditor in the OIG's Financial Statement Audit Office (FSAO), later promoted to Assistant Director, and then in 2007 named Director of FSAO before serving as Acting DAIGA since May 2015. Additionally, since 2013 Mark served as Chair of CIGIE's Subcommittee on Financial Statement Audits and its associated Financial Statement Audit Network.

Mark has a Masters of Accountancy degree from the George Washington University. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE).