

Joshua Marcus

Mr. Marcus began his career at GAO in July of 2006 after graduating from the University of Southern California with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. Mr. Marcus is a Certified Public Accountant in the state of California and a Certified Government Financial Manager.

Since beginning his career at GAO, Mr. Marcus has primarily focused on financial statement audits, including the audit of the Internal Revenue Service, Federal Housing Finance Agency, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and most recently, the Schedules of the General Fund of the U.S. Government. He is currently working on a performance audit related to disaster loans issued by the Small Business Administration and a Joint Financial Management Improvement Program initiative on identity verification and improper payments. He also has led the most recent updates to the GAO/CIGIE Financial Audit Manual.
