Responsibilities

This position is in the Office of Inspector General (OIG), an independent office within the Government Publishing Office (GPO) as defined by 44 USC 3901-3903. The position is supervised by the Special Agent-in-Charge(SAC). The OIG is responsible for conducting or overseeing all inspections, reviews, evaluations, and investigations relating to programs and operations of the Government Publishing Office. The GPO OIG Office of Investigations (OI) includes conducting and coordinating investigative activity related to allegations of fraud, waste, and abuse, and mismanagement in the administration of GPO programs and operations.

The GPO OIG Office of Investigations provides the Inspector General with a means of conducting investigative activities designed to prevent and detect fraud, waste, and abuse, and to promote the efficiency and economy in programs and operations of the Government Publishing Office (GPO), as well as in programs and activities carried out by grantees and contractors. Senior Criminal Investigators represents the GPO OIG Office of Investigations in assuring the effective implementation of the Office of Inspector General's (OIG) investigative and law enforcement programs and in the attainment of its goals and objectives on behalf of the GPO.

The incumbent conducts investigations in accordance with applicable Inspector General Statutes, regulations, and other standards established by the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE).

Qualifications:

The work of this position requires professional knowledge and experience in planning developing, and executing highly complex and sensitive investigations involving alleged or suspected fraud, waste, and mismanagement in programs and operations of GPO criminal and administrative investigations.

The work of this position requires professional knowledge and experience in evaluating complaints, information, or allegations received through the OIG's Hotline or referred to the OIG through other means to determine if they are under the OIG's jurisdiction under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, applicable laws, regulations, and judicial opinions.

The work of this position requires professional knowledge and experience in applying guidance, and regulatory interpretation of laws, orders, rules, and regulations pertaining to all aspects of criminal investigations and investigative support programs; and in-depth knowledge of investigative techniques, knowledge of the laws of evidence, the rules of Federal criminal procedures, and precedent court decisions on admissibility of evidence, constitutional rights and related matters

Finally, the work of this position requires professional knowledge and experience in delivering excellent written and oral communications in order to represent the IG effectively in dealing with GPO matters.

Note: This information must be supported in your resume to be considered for this position.

A complete application package must include:

- RESUME: Your resume, or other written form you choose to describe your job-related experiences are used to verify your qualifications. It is important that your resume reflects the duties and responsibilities under each position you have held with each employer.
- SF-50, Notification of Personnel Action: - To be considered for this position, you must be a current or former Federal employee, GS-13 (or equivalent). Therefore, you must submit a Notification of Personnel Action (SF-50) showing the highest grade level held in a position for which you are using to qualify. Your SF-50 must also include the Position Title and Series, Step, Salary, Tenure, Position Occupied, and promotion potential (if applicable) to verify your status and eligibility. Failure to submit the information required will result in an ineligible rating under merit promotion procedures.
- PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS: Copy of your most recent performance appraisal. If your performance appraisal is not dated within the last 12 months or if you are unable to provide a recent performance appraisal, you must provide a written statement explaining why it was not obtainable. Failure to submit required documentation will disqualify you from consideration.
- DD-214 - If you are claiming Veterans' Preference, provide a copy of your DD-214 (Member Copy 4) Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, or other equivalent documentation to prove your entitlement and to verify your type of discharge. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not receiving preference.
- VA Letter and SF-15 - If you are claiming Veterans' Preference based on a Compensable Disability, Widow or Spouse Entitlement, or as a Purple Heart recipient, you must submit your DD-214 or other proof of entitlement as described above; and SF-15, and the required proof of disability, i.e., Department of Veterans Affairs letter dated 1991 or later. Failure to provide this documentation may result in your application not receiving preference. (Please see Veteran eligibility documentation for more information on Veterans preference in federal hiring)

- COVER LETTER: A cover letter is optional. If you would like to include a cover letter, please include a brief synopsis of how you meet the specialized experience in your cover letter.
