

State OIG OGC GS15 Attorney-Advisor Opportunity

The Office of General Counsel in the State Department's Office of Inspector General is seeking to hire a GS15 Attorney-Advisor to fill a new, exciting senior-level generalist position. We are looking for a seasoned generalist with at least five years of practice experience and expertise in at least one OIG practice area (e.g., law enforcement, employment, whistleblower, procurement, information management) to serve as our eighth lawyer. We are a dynamic, fast-paced, collaborative and supportive group of lawyers. This position is perfect for a lawyer interested in working in a foreign policy and international context. To express your interest in joining our select group of attorneys, please send your resume to: katrice.g.mueller@stateoig.gov.
