

Heather I. Keister, CPA, CIA

Heather Keister is an Assistant Director on GAO's audit standards team responsible for developing, drafting, and maintaining Government Auditing Standards, in consultation with the Comptroller General's Advisory Council on Government Auditing Standards. Ms. Keister was responsible for research, drafting, and consultations with experts in developing and writing major sections of the 2011 revision to the Government Auditing Standards (The Yellow Book), as well as the July 2007 Yellow Book. Ms. Keister also works on the Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government (The Green Book), and GAO's work related to the audit standards of the International Organization of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI).

Prior to joining GAO, Ms. Keister played a significant role in the Naval Audit Service's audit quality assurance function responsible for developing audit policies and procedures, monitoring the implementation of audit policies and procedures through review of ongoing audits and oversight of quality control reviews, and coordinating with the Naval Audit Service's external peer reviewers. Prior to her role in audit quality assurance, Ms. Keister performed numerous performance and financial audits at the Naval Audit Service dealing with subject matter including the Navy's overseas housing programs; payroll issues; national defense property, plant and equipment; financial systems; and energy consumption.

As part of completing the Executive Leadership Program at the USDA Graduate School, Ms. Keister participated in leadership development and management courses, and completed developmental assignments that included an audit of EPA's strategic human capital initiative and providing support to the government-wide Joint Financial Management Improvement Program.

Heather has a Master of Science in Accounting and Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration and Music/Business from Grove City College. She is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Internal Auditor.

Ms. Keister is active on the board of the Northern Virginia Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants and is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Institute of Internal Auditors. She received the Comptroller General's Integrity Award in 2006 for her work on the Yellow Book team.
