INVITATION TO CONTRIBUTE ARTICLES

The Journal of Public Inquiry is a publication of the Inspectors General of the United States. We are soliciting articles from participating professionals and scholars on topics important to the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency and the Executive Council on Integrity and Efficiency. Articles should be approximately three to five pages, single-spaced, and should be submitted to Joanne Szafran, General Services Administration, Office of Inspector General (JPPF), Room 5303, Washington, DC 20405.

To review past editions, visit www.ignet.gov/randp/jpi.html

Please note that the Journal reserves the right to edit submissions. The Journal is a publication of the United States Government. As such, The Journal of Public Inquiry is not copyrighted and may be reprinted without permission.
