
Adjunct Instructor Training Program (AITP)

Who Should Attend:

The Adjunct Instructor Training Program (AITP) is a one-week basic instructor training program designed for adjunct instructors who teach and facilitate in Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE) Training Institute programs. The program is intended for current and prospective adjunct instructors who have minimal experience training adults, or those who want to further develop their instructional and facilitation skills. Attendance is by invitation only. Other partner organizations may attend in the event space is available.

What You Will Learn: Core Topics:

- Professional Standards for Adjunct Instructors
- Student-Centered Learning
- Instructional Systems Design and Evaluating Training
- Developing Effective Presentations
- Delivering Effective Presentations
- Facilitation Principles and Techniques
- Classroom Management