

Heather Pajak, OMB

Heather is a Senior Policy Analyst in the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), Office of Federal Financial Management. Heather joined OMB in 2013 and has since covered a variety of portfolios including internal controls, financial reporting, and improper payments. Heather is currently the Lead Analyst for the improper payments portfolio and works closely with the agency staff, OIGs, statisticians, and across resource management offices to identify inefficiencies in programs to reduce improper payment rates. Heather also develops and implements policy focused on reducing and preventing improper payments across the Federal Government.

Heather began her career in the Federal Government in 2006 at the General Services Administration. Before joining the Federal Government, Heather analyzed market trends at J.J.B Hilliard, W.L. Lyons, Inc. and evaluated multiple Criminal Justice Information Systems for the creation of a statewide methamphetamine related information repository at the Indiana Criminal Justice Institute. Heather earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from DePauw University and a Master of Public Affairs in Public Financial Administration and Criminal Justice from Indiana University. Heather is a President's Management Council Fellow.
